

Domestic Abuse Champions

We're looking for Domestic Abuse Champions who can make a real difference

What's Domestic Abuse Champion?

Domestic Abuse Champions are employees from across the partnership who will be supported to champion the subject of domestic abuse within their area of work.

How will they help?

With our commitment to the priority of recognising and responding to domestic abuse, Champions will importantly develop knowledge and confidence to help other team members and colleagues.

How we'll support you:

Those successful will receive supported time to access specific training that will help to develop their knowledge and awareness of domestic abuse and build confidence.

Additional support networks will also be made available to anyone undertaking the role.

What's in it for you?

Domestic abuse is a deep rooted issue that has significant impact for both staff and families, this is an exciting opportunity to develop increased knowledge and experience, and lead on a high priority area of safeguarding that will broaden your professional curiosity and provide new opportunities.

Interested?

Domestic Abuse Champions will be required across every department. We welcome expression of interest across a variety of roles, levels and areas.
